

MRS. VAN WINKLE MUST FACE TRIAL BY POLICE BOARD

Head of Woman's Bureau
Charged With Conduct Prejudicial to Department.

CASE RESULT OF DELAY IN RELEASING TWO GIRLS

Declared to Have Questioned Right of Superior Officer—Willing to Have Affair Aired.

Charges of conduct prejudicial to the good order, reputation and discipline of the police department were filed today against Lieut. Mina C. Van Winkle, head of the woman's bureau, as a result of the delay in releasing two runaway girls from the house of detention last Thursday.

The case will be aired before the police trial board at the Police Court building at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The trial board will be composed of Assistant Corporation Counsel Wahly, Capt. C. P. M. Lord and Capt. L. J. Stoll.

Willing to Stand Trial.
"I am perfectly willing to go on trial," said Mrs. Van Winkle, who started for the courthouse to testify in a case cleared up by her bureau. "I believe this will serve to clear the atmosphere better than anything else."

The lieutenant said she would be represented by counsel at the hearing. The charges were made out by Maj. Sullivan, superintendent, on complaint of Assistant Superintendent Charles A. Evans, whose order, it is alleged, she failed to obey. The charges are as follows: "I hereby charge Mina C. Van Winkle, a lieutenant in the metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia, as follows: "Charge—Conduct prejudicial to the good order, reputation and discipline of the metropolitan police force in violation of paragraph 17 of section 11 of the manual governing said force.

Questioned Superior Officer.
"Specification 1—That she, the said Mina C. Van Winkle, on or about the 23d day of March, 1922, at or about the hour of 7 o'clock a.m., did question the right of her superior officer, to-wit, Asst. Supt. Charles A. Evans, to issue an order for the release from the house of detention of two females, minors, held in said house of detention on no charge, but as fugitives from their parents."

Specification 2—That the lieutenant, on the date and at the hour aforesaid, did issue orders to her subordinates, to-wit, Edna L. Johnston, sergeant, and two other females, to issue further instructions from her, the lieutenant, to the effect that the release of the said minor females had theretofore been ordered by the said lieutenant's superior officer, to-wit, Asst. Supt. Charles A. Evans."

Girls Held for Parents.
Gwendolyn Peil, sixteen years old, and Jane Evans, fourteen, both of Brooklyn, N. Y., were taken into custody by detectives at Union station Wednesday night at the request of the parents, who had wired the police headquarters to detain the children until their fathers could come for them.

The controversy which resulted in today's action occurred Thursday morning, when the fathers arrived, before 7 o'clock, and Detective Sgt. Cornwell, in charge of the detective bureau endeavoring to have the girls turned over to their fathers immediately by the house of detention. The girls were released, but the controversy was drawn into the controversy and hearing between Lieut. Van Winkle and Asst. Supt. Evans.

The hearing before the trial board probably will hinge largely on the conversation which took place between Lieut. Van Winkle and Asst. Supt. Evans.

BALFOUR TO BE EARL.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, March 28.—Sir Arthur Balfour is to be created an earl, the Evening News says.

It asserts he has found life in the house of commons dull without of it. Balfour is a man of great ability, who would be a godsend to the house of commons, where his ability as a dilettante would be invaluable.

WOMEN SMOKING AGAIN, N. Y. BREATHE EASIER

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 28.—Police Commissioner Enright today lifted the ban on smoking by women in public as suddenly as he clamped it down last night, when he learned that Alderman McGuinness' anti-smoking ordinance had never been passed by the board of aldermen or signed by Mayor Hylan.

Enright, W. P. McCoy, an employee in the city clerk's office, was led forth, caparisoned in sackcloth and ashes, as official "guilt" for an error that had set pro and even anti smoking women on the warpath from the battery to the far reaches of Harlem. McCoy, it was explained, was charged with the mayor and sending them along to the proper officials for approval.

Overcome by Wrath.
McCoy still was too much overcome by the wrath that had descended upon his head to explain just how he happened to include the anti-smok-

LUXURIOUS LAUNCH GOES ON MAYFLOWER FOR PRESIDENT'S USE

In the future when President and Mrs. Harding go cruising on the presidential yacht Mayflower and have cause to go ashore at any time, they will do so in style and luxury. A modern and handsome, fitted gas launch has just arrived at the navy yard, which will shortly be placed aboard the presidential yacht for the sole use of the executive and his guests.

The interior furnishings, fittings and construction of this launch are especially rich and attractive and have been designed to afford comfort and elegance. The little craft is understood to have cost approximately $50,000. It will be placed aboard the Mayflower just as soon as space on the deck is made for it. President Harding today granted permission to Commander V. Holmes of that vessel to leave Washington next Monday on a ten-day or two-week "shake-down" cruise. The commander is anxious to give the launching of the yacht a thorough try-out before the President and Mrs. Harding take a trip this spring.

PRESIDENT HONORS CIVIL WAR LEADER

Turns Spade of Earth at Ceremony to Open Work on Meade Memorial.

Turning of the first spadeful of earth by President Harding this afternoon marks the beginning of a handsome monument to Gen. George Meade, who commanded the victorious federal army during the battle of Gettysburg. The memorial, erected in the northwest section of the grounds of the United States Botanic Gardens.

Impressive ceremonies attend the turning of the earth for the construction work, and the participation of the President of the United States in this tribute to the Gettysburg hero is being witnessed by a large gathering of distinguished officials and citizens of this city and Pennsylvania, which was the birthplace of Gen. Meade, and which furnished the nearly a quarter of a million dollars for the memorial.

Use Historic Spade.
Near the President stood Mrs. Harding, Secretary of War Weeks and Gov. William C. Sproul of Pennsylvania, the last two turning a spadeful of earth following the President. The spade used on this occasion was historic, in that it is the Lincoln and Grant memorials.

Senator Frank B. Rowland of Connecticut, one of the members of the National Meade Memorial Commission; George B. Meade, a grandson of the general, and George B. Meade, a great-grandson, also turned a spadeful of earth. The last named, on behalf of the Meade family, raised the invocation flag on the actual site of the memorial.

Secretary Weeks, as chairman of the National Meade Memorial Association, called the exercises to order following which Rev. R. E. McBride, department chaplain of the G. A. R., delivered a prayer.

Secretary Weeks then made a brief address, outlining the purposes of the gathering, in which he eulogized the memory of the distinguished American general, as follows: "The distinguished American general, who has given to the state of Pennsylvania, has given to the nation a monument to the distinguished services of Gen. George Meade. The site has been selected for its location. We assembled this afternoon for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act of Congress."

Place in History of War.
"This is not the time to discuss in detail the distinguished services of Gen. Meade or to dwell on the most conspicuous accomplishment of his career when in command of the northern army at Gettysburg. His victory at Gettysburg proved to be the turning point in the civil war. When our minds revert to that period and to the distinguished men who fought there, the names of Sherman, Sheridan, Thomas and Meade. Suitable memorials have already been erected in Washington to the first four and to Gen. Meade. The Meade Memorial Association has been organized for the purpose of erecting a memorial to the hero of the civil war. I think it is generally agreed that the Meade Memorial Association is one of the most important of those remaining who were conspicuously instrumental in bringing the civil war to a successful conclusion."

"It is not out of place for me to use Gen. Meade as an illustration of the value of the Regular Army. The Regular Army officers, even they, were engaged in strictly military activities during much of their service. It is the duty of the Regular Army to be ready at any time to take up arms and to be ready to do so at any time."

Remedy in New Construction.
"It must be said, in justice to the school department, however, that the plans for schoolhouse construction now under way will remedy many of the difficulties here brought out in regard to the schoolyards, as the aims of the board of education are far-reaching and include the recognition of the need for enlarged yard space. It is impossible, however, to come to the conclusion that the schoolyard problem will be realized; hence, the opportunities offered by the schools must be considered as they are. Even with these handicaps the investigators expressed the belief that there is or will be a remedy in new construction."

News Like Reprieve.
News that it was all a mistake came like a reprieve from the gallows to proprietors of scores of places where gratification of midday's passion for the soothing weed was the chief source of bread and butter revenues. Fashionable smoke shops for women had sprung up in 5th avenue, Broadway and other advanced centers, while Greenwich Village had come to depend almost exclusively on smoke rings to produce an atmosphere of Bohemianism, since that there is or will be a remedy. But the ordinance making it a crime to smoke in public places (Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

DISTANCE BARRIER TO CHILDREN'S USE OF PLAYGROUNDS

Large Sites in Most Instances Are Miles Removed From Homes.

SEPARATE SPACE URGED FOR YOUNGER KIDDIES
Accommodations for Mothers and Tots Should Be Conveniently Located in Every Neighborhood.

Little boys and girls up to the age of seven years in this city are denied the facilities for equitable and safe playground space because of the distance to large playgrounds, and, therefore, must confine their activities to streets, dangerous from the heavy vehicular traffic, according to those who have studied the local situation. There should be, they say, small playgrounds for these little children, at the very least, within a quarter of a mile of their homes.

Mrs. Bessie Root Rhoads, director of the municipal playgrounds, is in strong accord with this recommendation for the little children. It was pointed out that these little ones cannot travel far from their homes. In all districts where yards are not available for play at every doorstep there should be many small open spaces, with benches for mothers and simple equipment, as sandboxes and shallow wading pools. The city should be dotted with these play spaces.

Experience has shown that the play space for little children should be distinct from that for older children. The playgrounds for school children are not large enough to provide a corner for the exclusive use of little children additional space or separate land should be provided.

Guard Against Petty Theft.
Those who have studied the children and the playgrounds point out that the little street larcenies, thefts of bananas, peanuts, newspapers and other things that children do without intent to do wrong are in many cases traced to the playgrounds. The playgrounds for school children are not large enough to provide a corner for the exclusive use of little children additional space or separate land should be provided.

See National Program.
Mr. Coolidge was optimistic regarding conditions in general, and declared that progress, both governmental and economic, was going onward throughout the whole land. "As to the government," he said, "never has there been a time when the individual was so free to follow his own path as now. We are now in a position to make progress in the financial, and few will doubt that the necessary enterprise is waiting, but we need more than capital and enterprise—a willingness to work. Co-operation between the country suffered due to the war, the Vice President said the outstanding problem facing the American people at present was to get back to ordinary living conditions. We have gone through the first period, however," he declared. "We have accomplished an accumulation of effort which will enable us to return to normal times.
